What is the STAR Project?

Purpose:
- Document implementation and benefits from Accord-funded restoration and management actions
- High-level Report for Tribal Council and public
- Detailed Resource for managers, implementers

Area:
- Yakama Nation treaty-trust resource areas*

Species:
- ESA-listed anadromous salmonids
- Other Yakama Nation priority species

*Yakama Nation Treaty of 1855 (12 Stat. 951) with the U.S.

---

Project Structure

- Download/print reports
- Search and filter
- Interactive maps
- Secured access to data

High-Level Status Reports

- Press-Printed
- 10-15 pages

Mid-Level Summaries

- Website/Printable
- 50-100 pages

Technical Information Base

- Database

---

High-Level Status Reports

Summarize actions/status in:
1. Habitat restoration
2. Species status and trend
3. Hatchery/supplementation
4. Hydrosystem operations
   - Annual, print and web versions
   - Audience: Tribal Council, policy, general public

Mid-Level Summaries

- Population/subbasin scale
  - Wenatchee, Entiat, Methow
  - Yakima, Klickitat, Rock Creek
- Biologic & habitat goals, priorities, condition, response
- Implementation, monitoring, summary and evaluation
  - Audience: managers, regional coordinators, Tribal Council and public

---

Technical Information Base

- Assessment unit/subwatershed scale
- Biologic and habitat goals, priorities, condition, response
- Implementation details and evaluation
- Monitoring information
- Project catalog, maps, resources

- Audience: implementers, managers, biologists, outreach and planning resource and reference